Chapter 1 Be reborn

A complete darkness, Xu Xiang slowly opened his eyes and then he found there was not a single ray of light around himself. Was he dead? Xu Xiang silently shut his eyes again.

A cell phone rang, Xu Xiang woke up and opened his eyes and then he found himself lying on the bed in his room. The sense of touch was so familiar that Xu Xiang couldn't help but doubt that he was in a dream. Xu Xiang was still very familiar with the scene around. Room 504, Yangde District, his economical house, which is for the low-income earners.

At this time there was a knock on the door. Although he was still full of doubts, Xu Xiang still got up and opened the door. The person who came in was Xu Xiang's sidekick-Zhang Fan. Zhang Fan was really ugly, no wonder from his primary school to senior high school, even though he had courted countless girls, he still didn't even hold hands with any girl.

"Hey, Xu Xiang, when are you going to sleep? Today is the opening time of the game <<Dispute>>, don't tell me you forgot." Zhang Fan felt that Xu Xiang seemed to have changed a little, but he is unable to say what have changed. In contrast, he cared more about the game now.

"You say <<Dispute>> opens today?" Xu Xiang is stunned; <<Dispute>> was what he had played for two years and in that game he met Wang Xue. If today was the time the game opened, that is to say.....

Xu Xiang picks up his mobile phone. The mobile phone was clearly recorded: June 28, 2015. Xu Xiang's pupil retracted suddenly, it was really five years ago! Xu Xiang has to believe, because even a replica can't have such a big error."What year is it now?" To make sure, Xu Xiang asked Zhang Fan.

"2015, ah what's wrong? I heard that someone can't tell the date of a week, but I didn't expect that today I will see someone who can't tell the year" Zhang Fan thought Xu Xiang was testing his intelligence, but since when did someone have an IQ test like this?

"Five years ago, its five years ago!" Xu Xiang suddenly laughed. Five years ago, Xu Xiang just was an otaku, a professional game player, an innocent little boy, who has not entered <<Dispute>> and met Wang Xue, and didn't have the experience of being a mercenary for three years

And faith has yielded its reward. He ended his last life with a sense of guilt and regret. He didn't expect that god give him another chance again, "Wang Xue, this time I won't let you repeat it. Bai Xinming, if you continue to haunt Wang Xue, I don't mind sending you to hell." Fist clenched, his eyes showed an inexpressible firm.

"Hey, Xu Xiang, are you silly? Poor man, a good youth is being destroyed." Zhang Fan sadly signed.

"You are the one who is stupid." Xu Xiang gave Zhang Fan a fist. The joke between friends showed while they were smiling.

"Come on, I will let you know that I was no longer the weak self-abased poor boy!" This was the oath Xu Xiang made.

"Today is the date of the opening. Which profession are you going to choose and what's your name going to be in the game?" "The sky..." Then Xu Xiang was silent. "The wing of the sky" was his former ID, the thief that reached level 65 from his two years of effort, although it was not the top, it still was in the first-class, but.....

"Feng Xiang." The phoenix has the meaning of rising from the ashes. Now he was reborn, everything will be different. Being reborn, if he can't sweep obstacles like the autumn wind sweeps the leaves, it was really a waste of a life to be reborn.

"Xiang" is a tribute to his parents. He was an orphan, when he was picked up, his parents has given his name — Xu Xiang, does the name means fly slowly? Xu Xiang gave a wry smile, he was flying too slowly in his last life, and then he found everything has changed when he got to the destination.

"The profession I choose is thief" Xu Xiang chose this without any hesitation, if he still continued to play as a thief, he certainly has the most advantage. For the understanding of the thief, there certainly were no one better than him. So from this point of view, it was not necessary for him to think much, and three years experience of being a mercenary also let himself have more ability.

"I am called Shen Zi Shang, for my profession, I want to choose the warrior." Although he had already known, Zhang Fan felt relaxed a bit when Xu Xiang has confirmed his ID. If as a butterfly he has made some impact at this age, then his advantages will also reduce a lot.

Xu Xiang decided to take out all his savings to buy a game helmet, <<Dispute>> supports the game helmet and the game cartridge. Computers had long been popular in 2015, everyone had one in hand. However, a computer only can access the Internet, but the game helmet can play the game, also the game helmet was eighty percent virtual degree, so the movements will feel more natural in the game. And the game cartridge was now the only thing that Xu Xiang can look up.

Xu Xiang was very clear that the game <<Dispute>> will gradually dominate the global game market in the coming year. This means that raising his family was definitely not a problem, and Xu Xiang was confident to make himself live a better life by relying on the knowledge he had known two years ago before he was reborn.

Most of the money that Xu Xiang owned was earned by himself. He basically was at work in his spare time, so he has earned a lot of money, but his grades were in a complete mess, so it was not necessary for him to study in the university. And now he still has about RMB5000, one of the least expensive helmet costs RMB3000, that leaves RMB2000 which was kept in case of emergency.

<<Dispute>> allows only ten hours online every day, but the ten hours has no limit to the specific time. After your online time reach ten hours, any gain will be reduced to 1, that is to say the experience gained was also one point, practicing skills only gained one point of proficiency and so on. However, there were also day and night in the game, but because the proportion of time between reality and game was 1:1, the time was roughly the same.

Xu Xiang came to the location that sells <<Dispute>> and brought along his money, then he found that there was a sea of people, not only at the location, but also at the square outside.

"Who's the groper, dare to touch me."

"I'm not gay, brothers don't touch me."

"Who stepped on my shoes, use your mouth to lick it cleanly."

"Ah, millennium to kill!....."

Such a chaotic scene also illustrated how popular < > was. It's no wonder the game was so popular. Since the labor liberation in 2015, except helpless orphans like Xu Xiang, other people generally have money. And < <Dispute> > was equivalent mild sleep in the game. People can not only sleep but also can play the game, it's impossible if it is not popular.

Although Xu Xiang was a professional game player, but he still paid attention to his physical health. Xu Xiang was very clear that if his health deteriorates, everything will be gone. So he kept doing exercise in the usual time .He was strong with 1.80 meter tall and his weight was 75.50 kilogram. He hustled along the road, he don't know how many pairs of shoes he stepped on. He is able to do this thanks to such a good physical body, although it was not as good as that of three years later when he was a mercenary.

"Miss, give me a helmet." He took out his identity card and gave it to the lady. Each helmet was bound by his identity card, others can't use.

This also stopped someone selling their ID and train for someone else etc..

Lost 3000 yuan, taking a helmet box, Xu Xiang hustled out of the crowd and stepped over countless people shoes, and then he returned home.

Chapter 2 Getting into the game!

The helmet needed to be connected to the computer to play, and there were instructions in the box on how to connect. The helmet was a blue thing like a motorcycle helmet. There was a button above the helmet, which was the key position to remind the people who is in the game when in reality.

When all was ready, Xu Xiang went on the website of << Dispute>>. There was still a period of time till 8 o'clock in the evening. Xu Xiang wanted to see if he can find some useful information. But unfortunately, with the exceptions of a slogan "Even if the world is broken, there is no dim light." on the top, there is no useful information on the official website at all, and the rest were some guild and clans recruiting people in advance.

"Even if the world is broken, there is no dim light." Xu Xiang said this sentence which he didn't understand the meaning even he has played two years in his past life. He hopes that he can understand it in his this life. .

After getting up to the toilet, flushing and washing hands, he went back to the front of the computer and had a look at the time: seven forty-five, then he entered the game! <> opened 15 minutes earlier than the scheduled time, this information was part of the game that players released after the game has been opened for a week. Xu Xiang naturally knew, but he didn't tell Zhang Fan. Because he knew the personality of Zhang Fan, if Zhang Fan knew, maybe everyone in the whole city might know, Zhang Fan was a big mouth!

But Xu Xiang still hesitated, because Xu Xiang met Wang Xue in the village of newcomer. If because he accessed to the game early that the village of newcomer Xu Xiang entered was different from the one that Wang Xue entered, that means their meeting was bound to require more time and effort. But as long as there was enough strength, how can't he find his favorite?

"Bind the iris, verify the identity, generate the serial number 1545244589545123. Mr. Xu Xiang, welcome to the world of <<Dispute>>." After a female voice sounded from the system, what showed in front of Xu Xiang was a vast plain.

The left of the plain were a knight army and an elf troop, Xu Xiang knew that the knight army is the Astle Knights, which was known as the "eternal sword", it was the strongest military of the empire. And in the elf troop there were a large number of archers and magicians. There were still a few dragons roaring above the human being with their huge shadows covering the ground.

At the right of the plain was the undead and orc army. The massive skeleton became a vast expanse stretching to infinity, this was the Necromancer's masterpiece, even a few bone dragons and ghost dragons were flying in the sky.

The orc army was even tougher. And the Beamon behemoth, thunder Eagle and all kinds of advanced creatures were everywhere, as well as the neat Tauren and the Shaman's troops, the scarlet eyes, the huge totem with runes of magic.

The sound of a horn sounded, the army began to assault. Then the silvery sound of the swords and the war whoop mingled together. Even though this was the second time Xu Xiang saw it, it still made his blood boil. This was a man's destination, this was a blood and fire disaster!

"Name?" "Feng Xiang." "Profession." "Thief." The available occupations in < > are the knight, warrior, thief, archer, warlock, magician, priest, seven conventional occupations, but due to different preferences to adding skill points, there will naturally have different branches.

"Race." The races in < > have humans, orcs, undead, sea clan, night elves. The most suitable race to a thief naturally were the undead and elves, the former has strong resistance ability from control, while the elves was superior due to their disappearing ability. Xu Xiang was an undead thief in his previous life, there was naturally no exception this time.

"Undead." "I wish you have a nice time in the game." The white light flashing, entered into the world of the < >.

This was a small quiet village, there was a piece of land in the center of the village, and around it there were all kinds of shops. There was a kind old man in the middle of the clearing land, who was naturally the mayor of the village. At the entrance of the village, there were guard captains who are responsible for guarding the village. And Xu Xiang appeared in the only clearing ground of the village. The undead will not turn into skeletons, just their skins was a little pale.

"The village of newcomer, No.0009527" Xu Xiang looked at the map coordinates of the upper right corner, the village of newcomer, No.9527, which was the same as his past. It seemed that although he entered into the game early, but it didn't affect the wheel of fate forward. The number 9527 was quite a meaningful figure. The village of newcomer didn't mean that the quickly you enter, the more in front you are, but it is actually random arrangement. It seemed that Xu Xiang is a butterfly has not begun to flap its wings.

Ignoring the complaint from the mayor of the village, Xu Xiang went outside the village and called up the column of his personal property.

Name: Feng Xiang

Gender: Male

Level: 0

Reputation: 0

Attribute: strength 2 agility 3 spirit 2 intelligence 1 toughness 1

HP: 110 ($100 + 1 \times 10$)

Rage: 0/100

Attack: 3 – 3 ($2 \times 1 + 3 \times 0.3$)

Defense: 1 (1*1)

Hiding: 3 (The talent value of the thief occupation)

Perception: 1

Movement speed (max): 5 Yards Per Second (YPS)

Jump distance (maximum): 3 yards

Skills: the talent of the undead (passive): increased by one percent to all kinds resistance to control skills, can't be upgraded.

The will of the undead (active): have the immunity to all kinds of the control skills except the stun ability beyond 3 seconds, cooldown 10 minutes, can't be upgraded.

Stiletto mastery (inactive): if the weapon is a stiletto, the attack damage is increased by ten percent, can be upgraded.

Dagger mastery: if the weapon is a dagger, the attack damage is increased by ten percent, can be upgraded.

Special Thief Characteristic: Backstab: when attacking things behind the enemy, the damage is increased by twenty percent, can't be upgraded.

Reflection: thieves are the experts of the trap, they can detect traps to some extent.

Poison application: thieves are the masters of poison , they can poison their own weapons.

Adding the only skill point to dagger mastery, Xu Xiang was used to using the dagger. The stiletto was longer than the dagger and the attack was higher, which was suitable for combat spec to use. However, Xu Xiang specialize in assassination, clearly the dagger was more suitable.

Although he was very familiar with the property chart, Xu Xiang sighed with emotion: "I have come back again!" The voice echoed in the opening village, and it didn't attract the attention of NPC, and there were no other players that came to this village of newcomer.

Xu Xiang came to the entrance of the village; he received new equipment from the guards. "Honor Feng Xiang warrior, do you really want to eradicate the monsters for our village?"

"Yes." Xu Xiang felt it is like the question from the pastor in wedding ceremony. "Would you love her and protect her in your whole life....." Then Xu Xiang said "I do." Xu Xiang glanced at the bearded uncle, he couldn't resist a shake.

"Feng Xiang warrior, please take it, this is a token of my regard, God bless you." The guard put his palms together and prayed devoutly. Ignoring the guard with a pious face, Xu Xiang equipped the two pieces of equipment for newcomer:

Novice Dagger: attack 0 – 1 attack speed 0.8 weights 5 can't be sold.

Novice Garment: Defense 0-1, weight 3 can't be sold.

Xu Xiang knew that there was no task that can be done this early. The only unique task he knew was the level 5 dungeon task from the mayor of the village. <> has a huge task system, but most of them were the unique tasks. The task will disappear as long as someone completes it, and the task relies on the players to seek and find.

In his previous life, what Xu Xiang had done basically was the instances or grinding monsters. And have not done many tasks. Xu Xiang was the thief who was active in the battlefield, doing tasks was not his main purpose, and if the task can be repeated then the reward will be very low. So it made it difficult to level up in <>, the highest level was less than 80 in the past two years of his previous life.

Because <> has a limited time to play, during his previous life, Xu Xiang went to the forum or read books in the imperial library after he arrived. In the forum, there were a lot of introduction to tasks and dungeons strategies that the players have completed, which now is a priceless treasure! And most of the books in the library were all about history, this was also very helpful to do tasks in the future.

Chapter 3 The King of Red Tailed Snakes!

Xu Xiang came outside the village, he saw slimes that's like a jelly. The information of low-leveled monsters can be easily checked, and for the BOSS in the area of low-level monsters, players can see the attributes even if it was more than 5 levels. And the monsters below level 5 won't attack the game player initiatively.

Slime

Level: 0

Attack: 2

Defense: 0

Introduction: the primary monsters in the village of newcomer, anyone can easily kill it.

He toyed with a dagger flexibly with his slightly pale hands, this was a small habit of Xu Xiang. When his mood fluctuates, it will distract his attention.

Xu Xiang went behind the slime, plunged into it with the dagger, a damage of 5 points emerged from the slime's head. Slime turned back his body difficultly, spited saliva to Xu Xiang. Xu Xiang sidled to avoid. In the game of the <>, the game players can avoid the monster's attack by their body movements, but they need to according to certain specified actions of the system. At this point, Xu Xiang naturally mastered it easily.

When you avoid from the attack of the melee attack monster, you just need to make the attack of the target to not hit the parts of your body. But this kind of dodge won't work when you try to avoid from the attack of the ranged attack monster. If you think that when you dodge the arrows or magic it will just brush past you, then you are wrong. The ranged attacks has an automatic correction system, it requires certain skills to dodge. Although the slime uses its saliva to attack, it is determined as a melee attack by the system.

Xu Xiang turned behind to slime, plunged into it with his dagger again, which took away 6 points of HP from the slime. Then while the slime struggled to turn his body, he flashed to his back and plunged into the back again. So Xu Xiang toyed with slime in this way, and he also gradually found the feeling of killing the monsters just like before. His obscure action turned to be coherent, although there were no previous robust properties as his background, his eyesight was the same and the technology was still the same!

"Ding~ killed the monster slime, get 5 points experience." 5 points experience, upgrading required 10000 points, that was 2000 slimes. A slime takes about 10 seconds, so by counting like this it will cost more than five hours to kill 2000 slimes. This was the minimum to rise from level 0 to level 1, thus it was very difficult to level up in << Dispute >>.

Besides, looking for the monsters needs time. Now it is fast other players has not entered the game yet, otherwise this monster district of level 0 will have a sea of people, even taking 30 hours to level up will also be very difficult.

After finished killing a slime, Xu Xiang didn't kill it any more. He was reborn, if he really goes to grind the monsters until level 5 and proceed to do dungeons, it will be a waste of time. He just wants to find the feeling of the game again. Now that he found it, there was naturally no need to do that. After all, Xu Xiang just got back into the game again after 3 years.

At this time there were also some people on the ground in the middle of the village. Xu Xiang didn't expect only himself to know the secret of the 15 minutes early opening time. Moreover, there was no way for the 15 minutes to make much difference.

Xu Xiang got 10 coppers when he began to enter the game system. Xu Xiang spent this money on purchasing the primary instantaneous recovery medicine and each primary instantaneous recovery medicine cost five coppers. Xu Xiang gritted his teeth and directly bought two primary instantaneous recovery medicine. Building the character in the < > can't be removed and rebuilt in a month, which also stopped the possibility that using this to setting brushing money.

Primary instantaneous recovery medicine

Effect: instantly recover 100 HP

Cooldown : 30 seconds.

Introduction: A popular medicine in Mainland, can rapidly restore blood volume.

After that Xu Xiang walked out the entrance of the village again. Now the slime zone of level 0 already has a sea of people, more and more people will come. Every time when each slime appears, there will be at least five weapons to hit, such as the knives, swords, sticks. Xu Xiang also got experience of 3 slimes conveniently when he went through the slime's zone. The reaction speed of Xu Xiang was far better than the average, which was the result of years playing as a thief, naturally he was better than others at killing monsters.

In the situation of there is no team, the experience of killing monsters was gained by the first player that hit it. But the dropped items didn't belong to anyone, that was to say everyone can pick them up, this also made the event of killing people to get the money in the < > common. But if not for fighting, what else would the players play for?

What have to say was that it was very difficult for archers and magicians to grab the monsters. Even if they have ranged attack skills that are attached to the system, ranged attack needs time. By the time your attack reaches, the warrior and thief they already have grabbed the monsters. According to the experience distribution of < >, even the first attacker in a team can gain 20 percent experience, the last attacker can gain 30 percent experience. Don't need to mention about priests, they can only obediently beat it with a stick.

Xu Xiang passed through the slime zone and came to a level 1 rat zone. There were only several parties killing monsters to level up here, so it was more relaxed here. It was not too difficult for a team of five people to kill the monster of level 1, and the experience equally was similar as killing slime. The important thing was there has no one grabbing the monsters here. From this point of view, it was far more efficient than in the level 0 zone.

Rat

Level: 1

Attack: 8

Defense: 4

HP: 70

Introduction: the primary monster in the village of newcomer that like eating crops in the farm , and it was the existence that hated by all the people of the village.

Xu Xiang didn't stay for a long time in the level 1 zone, he kept going straight ahead. Those players obviously surprised for a while when they saw Xu Xiang continue to move forward.

"That man want to die? Now everyone is level 1 affirmatively. He thought he would be able to win the monsters that higher than level 1?" "Ignore him, ah, who robbed my monster!" "The man thought he is the leading role? Hell."

Because it was in the evening, there has more light around the village of newcomer. And darkness didn't influence the leveling process, but the lights grew lesser and at last, only moonlights are left.。

Xu Xiang went through the deer area of level 2 , the goblin zone of level 3, goblin striker district of level 4, he didn't stop until he get to the red tailed snake area of level 5. Due to the monster below grade 5 will not attack the player initiatively, so it was relatively safe. But the reptiles all over the mountains and plains crawled back and forth with their tongue vomiting, which also can scare some girls.

Red tailed snakes

Level: 5

Attack: 60

Defense: 20

Introduction: the strongest monster of the primary monsters in the village of newcomer, it has strong attack and good health.

Red tailed snakes, just as its name implies, the tail was red, although it was night now, but the bright red was very easy to distinguish under the moonlight. However, Xu Xiang's goal was still not these red tailed snakes, but the king of the red tailed snakes– the first BOSS in the village of newcomer. Xu Xiang easily found it even though there are snakes all over the mountains and plains. After all, its body was far bigger than the ordinary red tailed snakes and its red color was brighter than other red tailed snakes, so it was no way not get people's attention.

Red tailed snakes (BOSS of Bronze level)

Level: 7:

Attack: 120

Defense: 40

HP: 3000

Skills: [Venom of the king of snake]

Introduction: The king of the red tailed snakes was the master of the red tailed snakes, with a strong attack ability and deadly venom.

Chapter 4 The Gallbladder of the King of Red Tailed Snakes!

Xu Xiang knows that he would be half dead if he was bitten once. But he still remembered the video that showed how to take advantage of the terrain to kill this king of the red tailed snakes in his previous life. That video was linked to the forum after the game has been opened for a month, which showed a level 2 archer abusing the terrain to make the king of the red tailed snakes stuck and then killing it just with arrows.

Although it had already been opened for a month, and there were a lot of people who had changed professions, this video still caused a sensation. Because a short time ago before that, there were 20 level 5 players that formed a group to kill this king of red tailed snakes. But the king of snakes was really dangerous, with one bite it reduced half of the player's HP. These level 5 players in this group didn't have priests who can heal, killing the king of snakes with so little sustain, even relying on health potions is not enough. Naturally, the whole group was destroyed.

Xu Xiang went to confirm the terrain first. As a mercenary, he can't just trust the information blindly, because the information may be wrong, only by seeing and confirming it himself then he can trust it. This had become a habit of Xu Xiang, just like eating and sleeping. Then he returned to his original position, and found that the king of red tailed snakes was still there, with its position unchanged even 1 yard.。

Xu Xiang quietly got close to the king of red tailed snakes. The king of red tailed snakes was almost 7 yards long, its red scales on its tail shining under the moonlight and was lying motionless on the ground. Xu Xiang weakened his mood, then jumped up suddenly and plunged into the back of the king of red tailed snakes violently. Above the head of the king of red tailed snakes showed 1 point of damage, and the king of red tailed snakes naturally started to wake up.

After plunging the snake, Xu Xiang ran away immediately. He remembered the terrain that the archer made the king of red tailed snakes stuck in the video was on a tree not far away. There were 3 big trees encircling each other. The trees began to branch out from the ground to 1 yard, and there was a small space that a person can pass through but it was not big enough for the king of the red tailed snakes. As long as he jumped past the space with the king of snakes, the king of snakes will naturally be stuck between the trees and is unable to move or retreat.

But it was clearly not that easy to execute. That person in the video was an archer, although archers and thieves were the jobs that were experts in speed, Xu Xiang was only level 0 with equipment of a newcomer. The archer was level 2, and he seemed to add 20 attribute points to agility, and he had shoes, so his speed became very fast, at the same level as the king of snakes.

But also because of this reason, Xu Xiang didn't have to worry the problem of loss of hatred just like the archer.

The speed of Xu Xiang was slower than the king of snakes, he was caught up by the king of snake after he ran 50 yards. The king of snakes tried to bite Xu Xiang with its big mouth but Xu Xiang tumbled a side and he escaped this attack. Then he got up and kept running. At this time, he felt a pain coming from his back, and then he noticed that there was a state in the attribute column:

The venom of the king of snake

Lose 9 HP per second, lasts 15 seconds

Now Xu Xiang finally understood why the group got destroyed, it is because of this venom. He escaped the attack from the king of the snakes, but he still was poisoned, which proved that the venom was at least an AOE skill. Everyone will be poisoned as long as they touch the venom, so the venom was very hazardous.

Xu Xiang counted his HP, then after 11 seconds, he pulled out the primary instantaneous recovery agents and drunk it, his HP recovered to full value. But then his HP began to fall again, and finally it stopped at 74 points. Xu Xiang was poisoned by the venom again during the way. However, Xu Xiang's stock was sufficient and there was enough time to wait for its cooldown, so Xu Xiang wasn't in a tight spot.

At this time, Xu Xiang has come to the front of the tree and the king of snakes was just 10 yards behind Xu Xiang. Xu Xiang jumped and he heard the sound of leaves rustling. While he was landing on the ground, he tumbled so as to offset the impact of the landing. He got up and ran forward few more yards, then he looked back over his shoulder.

Good boy! The king of red tailed snakes has been stuck in the tree, its abdomen was stuck in between two branches that were tough. The king of snakes desperately twisted its body. The sound of the leaves in the tree rustling again, some leaves were falling slowly on the ground. But the king of snakes was still stuck in the tree between the branches, just like a pliers vise holding the snake.

Xu Xiang walked around the snake, and then he came behind the king of red tailed snakes, seeing that the tail has feebly swayed. Fortunately, in this position, the king of snakes can't exert any strength. Otherwise, just getting hit by the tail of the king of snakes can make Xu Xiang drink a pot.

Xu Xiang began to attack the king of snakes. Although attacking the back of the king of snakes deals a backstab damage, the level of Xu Xiang was really too low. Each of his attack only dealt one point of damage, which made the king of snakes very angry. However, it is powerless to protect itself even though it wants to.

<<Disputes>> made that you will be able to cause harm as long as you hit the target. Even if a level 0 newcomer attacked a level 250 lord monster, it will also deal 1 point, not MISS, unless the target has skills or equipments with dodge, which also provided theoretical support for many players who hit the BOSS to death with the tactic of using a sea of people. However, the HP recovery rate of the BOSS can put most of groups to shame, not to mention big AOE damaging skills.

The HP recovery rate of the king of red tailed snakes was medium. Xu Xiang found he need to spend one hour to kill it if he keeps attacking it like this. It was natural to take a long time. After all, a level 0 newcomer killing a level 7 BOSS, no one would dare to think.

Xu Xiang waved his arms mechanically to attack the king of snakes with a knife for an hour. Fortunately, the equipment of newcomer was durable, otherwise Xu Xiang would have to kill the king of snake with his bare hands.

"Ding ~The HP of the king of red tailed snakes is below 10 percent, it is in a state of frenzy, attack power increased by 30 percent, defense increased by 20 percent, HP stopped restoring, lasts for 10 minutes.”

The body of the king of snakes became red and made the whole tree shake and crumble, this made Xu Xiang’s heart suddenly go up to his throat. Fortunately, the tree was very strong and has no cracks, but because the body of the king of snakes swelled, it became tighter to the tree. Now the king of snakes can’t even move at all.

If the players who are making a group to kill the king of snakes hear about this system abuse, they probably will spray a mouthful blood to the screen. The attack power of the king of snakes had been very high, and now it is also increased by 30 percent. Moreover, not many people will still be alive in the group by this time. But it was good news for Xu Xiang, because the HP of king of snakes has stopped restoring.

“Ding ~ Congratulations to you killing the king of red tailed snakes (BOSS of Bronze level), gained 30000 experience, increased experience gained by 80 percent for skipping 8 levels to kill the monster, total experience gain is 54000 and reputation increased by 10 points. Congratulations, your level has been increased. Now your level is 1, all attributes increased by one, get 10 free attribute points.”

A gorgeous white light enveloped Xu Xiang, his level has been upgraded. The king of red tailed snakes finally died, the body struggled hard but softened down immediately. Xu Xiang also sat on the ground to take a rest. He was really tired having wielded dagger like this for an hour, but soon it was replaced by the joy of killing the BOSS, and the king of snakes dropped out three things.

The gallbladder of the king of snakes (Task item)

Description: This was the gallbladder of the king of the red tailed snake in the village of newcomer, you can get a reward when you give it to the mayor of the village.

Chapter 5 The task from the gay!

Maybe because it was the first time that the king of snakes was killed that the wasteland is opening up. The king of red tailed snakes gave 2 pieces of bronze equipment and a task item. At this time, the game has just been opened for slightly more than one hour and to a player who were still a newcomer, these two pieces of equipment can be considered to be artifacts. But it required the player to be level 5. It seems that the sword can only be used after it was kept for a period of time.

Equipments level 5 and below were not required to be identified, otherwise Xu Xiang's heart will break whenever he thought of the appraisal fee.

In addition to the equipments, there were 81 copper coins, it was the first pot of gold since Xu Xiang got into the game.

The 10 points attributes, add 7 to agility, and add the leftover 3 to power, so the total attack damage rises to 10 points. Due to leveling up, all attributes have also risen by 1 point, so the HP was now up to 120 and defense increased to 3. Xu Xiang took a look at the experience of "44005/50000", leveling up was really the most difficult thing, by skipping so many levels to kill the BOSS, it only raise the level by 1.

Unfortunately he has no way to deal with the body of the king of snakes. For this, Xu Xiang just can only have the idea, but is helpless. He hasn't learned the skill to skin, so he has no way to deal with the body of the king of snakes. Moreover, there were no tools. "To thank you for your contribution to me, I'll leave you a whole body, Amen."

Xu Xiang ran back to the No.9527 village of newcomer with taking his booty. The players around stared him wondrously, this person unexpectedly came back intact. "He must have just gone out for a walk, the monsters below level 5 in the village of newcomer will not attack people directly." A player guessed and said with the typical mentality that he if can't do it others can't as well.

"Didn't you see that he is happy, he must have gained something. No, I have to go to see." This was one player who was good at observing someone's speech and behavior, but a wrong decision would let him waste a lot of leveling time.

Xu Xiang didn't care about these players who are talking. He went straight in front of the mayor of the village and took out the gallbladder of the king of snakes. The players around Xu Xiang saw the thing that is in Xu Xiang's hands. The gallbladder of the king of snakes was much larger than the gallbladder of ordinary snakes. It was as big as people's fist and the whole body was red. The surprised eyes of other players were full of envy and jealousy, but they can only see. Not to mention, there was no way to steal and PK in a safe zone, even in the wild, they also have to weigh their own components.

However, when the mayor of the village saw the gallbladder of the king of snakes, his eyes brighten and his two withered hands quickly held Xu Xiang's hands while taking the gallbladder. His expression was like seeing a gay friend who have not met for many years and have been hungry and thirsty for a few years.

"Honor Feng Xiang warrior, you unexpectedly defeated the king of red tailed snakes, this makes me really surprised. This is your reward." The Mayor of the village waved his hand, the gallbladder in Xu Xiang's hands disappeared, and Xu Xiang was also rewarded.

"Ding~ Congratulations on your completing the task of [The gallbladder of the king of snakes], get experience of 5000, you gain 1 piece of silver." It was a task, and the reward was fairly good. A person only can get about 20 experience point if he killed a level 1 rat. So the reward was equivalent to the experience of killing 250 monsters. Xu Xiang was still relatively easily content, and in this way, Xu Xiang will level up soon, 49005/50000.

Looking at the one silver and 81 coppers in the backpack, Xu Xiang was happy. He was like a little millionaire, nurturing a little sister was no problem. But now it was not the time to nurture his sister, because the mayor's face pulled down again, there was a task!

"Mayor, is there anything I can help you with?" The attitude of Xu Xiang was still respectful. Xu Xiang knew that having a good impression to the NPC was also very important. By having a favorable impression, the probability to trigger tasks was high, an NPC can even help you complete the task. Moreover, who knows maybe the old man in front of you was actually a master magician who lived here? Although Xu Xiang felt that even if he was the leading role, this old man will not be a master magician.

"Honor Feng Xiang warrior, although you have killed the king of red tailed snakes, but its subordinates still endanger the safety of village of newcomer, can you help me remove them??" The mayor revealed expectation in his eyes, which made Xu Xiang absolutely terrified.

"The old man is definitely gay." Xu Xiang made unspoken criticism in his heart, but he quickly answered: "Of course, I would like to." A man who would not take tasks was stupid, although this was likely to be gay's mission.

"Ding~ you accepted the commission of the mayor of village No. 9527

Remove the red tailed snakes [The difficulty of the task: 45]

Kill 500 red tailed snakes, collect 20 tails of red tailed snakes, give them to the mayor then you will get huge rewards.

Task time limit: No. "

The difficulty of the task was 45, that is to say this task was better to be done when you are level 4. The difficulty of the task was related to its level and equipments. Now the level of Xu Xiang is very low and his equipment is also very bad, naturally the difficulty became high. For this huge reward, Xu Xiang only can roll his eyes, since even if the difficulty of the task was 1, the system will also write generous rewards.

Xu Xiang left when he saw the old mayor recover to the NPC state again.

Standing at the entrance to the village, looking at the people all over the mountains and plains, Xu Xiang was thinking where he should go to level up. There is a boss to kill, but the monsters there are monsters that will attack aggressively. He will die if he is slightly careless. It would be ok if he dies. Now he was going to level up, his experience points will not fall if he dies after he just leveled up. But if he can't kill the BOSS, then it is just waste of time, and the difficulty of the BOSS is also larger.

Moreover, if he dies, something will fall out of his body, one random equipment on his body and some of the items in the backpack. And he still has to run to the corpse, to resurrect directly in the village will cost 3 levels. The cost is unbearable.

"Well, anyways, there should be no one can catch up to my level before tomorrow. I can think of a way to get some equipments and skill books." Xu Xiang thought and made a decision.

For thieves, skills and equipments were significantly more important than levels. It was not unreasonable to think that thieves were known as the king of control. It was the usual strike, strike, stun etc. These skills can stun a person to death, not to mention the high-level thieves still have all kinds of rare skills and the trigger skills added with the equipment.

All the skills in << Dispute>> required all players to find the skill books, then learn it by themselves and be familiar with the books. There is no special NPC to teach them. So this required relatively high player's talent, which was also the difference between a newbie and an expert. The basic skill books were on sale from the instructor, but the price was very high.

However, the thief was the profession which requires the highest skills. Other professions like the warrior, as long as the action was standard and similar to the provisions in the system, the completion rate basically can be more than 70 percent. And the magician's completion rate was simpler, as long as the action was right and the magician chants fully, the completion rate can be very high.

Skill actions of the thief were generally more difficult to do, and even all of the actions needed to use different ways of attack. However, when a thief can have a high completion rate of using their skills, the effect will be very scary.

Displaying one's skills includes the completion rate, action, weapons. Some skills needed to be changed according to the weapons. And the action was naturally the action made by the players while they are displaying their skills. The data of the completion rate mainly was used by a magician, if the chanting time of a magic needs 5 seconds, a magician can launch in 3 seconds, just that the completion rate will only be around 60 percent or even less. So the more powerful the magic, the completion rate will be naturally less, or perhaps it will self-explode because due to instability.

Chapter 6 The king of the blue eyed wolf

Now Xu Xiang needed to take a skill, yes, taking. Stealing and taking were not the same, to the gentleman, it was called taking, but to the villain, it was called stealing. Xu Xiang considered himself to be a gentleman, so it was taking not stealing.

Xu Xiang was rich now. Without much hesitation, he wretchedly spent 25 copper coins on buying a set of five primary instantaneous recovery agents from a wretched potion merchant who had a wretched smile. Then he put two pieces of the level 5 bronze equipment stored in the warehouse. The level 1 warehouse was open for free, with 20 free item slots.

After Xu Xiang had done this, he appeared again. His goal this time was a treasure chest. All of the treasure chests in the area of newcomer were wooden chests, and they were the chests of the lowest level, they don't require lock picking skills. The time taken to open the chest was 5 seconds, and the chest contains silver or five red strengthening stones that can make the equipment strengthen to 4, and also bronze level equipment and skills book.

Skill books were the hardest to determine its level, because the usage of skills depends on the person. A master even with only basic skills can also make a newbie who have all kinds of advanced skills dead, because the newbie can't even touch the master.

The chest Xu Xiang needed was in level 5 zone, which was the zone of blue eyed wolf. The blue eyed wolf was the lowest level monster that can initiatively attack. Xu Xiang initially felt that the blue eyes wolf and the white eyes wolf must be the gay friends, otherwise how they will attack initiatively? The red tailed snake was also a level 5 monster, but they never attack initiatively.

Xu Xiang left No.9527 village of newcomer again. And many players who were still struggling with the slimes in the zone of level 1 saw Xu Xiang coming out again and he seemed to even get further into the monster zone, their eyes turned into red and even a few people wanted to tag along.

But it was not a problem for Xu Xiang. Thieves were the masters of tracking, these people were still too tender. Although he didn't walk with stealth, if he just turned on many corners, he can easily get rid of them. And on his way, he also dealt with a few rats conveniently, increasing his level to 2, and added 7 points to the agility and 3 points to power.

After he walked for 10 minutes, he arrived at the zone of the blue eyed wolf.

The blue eyed Wolf

Level: 5

Attack: 65

Defense: 18

HP: 250

Introduction: This was the first monster that will attack initiatives in the village of newcomer, which has fast movement speed and attack speed.

The stats of the blue eyes wolf was overall worse than the red tailed snake, but its experience was more than the red tailed snakes because it can attack initiatives. In <<Dispute>>, the monsters that attack initiatives gave 20 percent more experience than regular monsters that did not.

Xu Xiang easily saw that treasure chest in the middle of the wolf pack. The appearance of the wooden chest was the same, a layer of wood that was almost rotten, about 0.2 yards high, half a yard long, 0.3 yards wide, it was particularly conspicuous from the wolf of mountains and plains.

However, there were 10 wolves walking around the treasure chest. Because this was a system, each wolf has its own fixed path. What Xu Xiang needed to do was to avoid the wolf's hatred distance to reach the place where the chest was.

At this time, Xu Xiang noted that there was a gigantic wolf in the right side of the wolf pack. That wolf has huge wolf tongue, blue eyes and buck teeth, robust limbs, and its face seemed to written "stranger, don't stay close to me", of course, if the wolf had a face.

It was the king of wolf! Xu Xiang estimated a distance between the chest he wanted and the king of wolf, the distance was about 50 yards. This was in a plain, the vision was wide, but the hatred distance of the king of wolf should be not so far. And at this time when the king of wolf moved, from the point of view of Xu Xiang, he just can see there was unexpectedly have a treasure chest behind the king of wolf. Instantaneously, Xu Xiang's pupil shrank a while, but he soon calmed down.

In his previous life, Xu Xiang didn't hear that the king of wolf has a treasure chest. And when he arrived here, the chest had been opened and removed off the system, so he didn't know. However, for now, the king of wolf wasn't an existence he can deal with.

The king of the blue eyed wolf(BOSS of Bronze level)

Level: 9

Attack: 200

Defense: 75

HP: 3500

Skills: [Roar]

Introduction: The king of the blue eyes wolf, the king that was occupying the plain of the village of newcomer, and it has fast movement speed and attack speed.

The king of the blue eyed wolf was of a higher rank than the king of the red tailed snake, and all its stats were higher than the king of the red tailed snake's. So it needed at least a small team of level 9 that had 20 people to kill the king of wolf or maybe when Xu Xiang had changed his profession that he has hope to kill it.

Pulling his view back to the goal, Xu Xiang began to quietly observe and calculate the route of the wolf. The hatred distance of the blue eyed wolf was 5 yards, 5 to 8 yards was the buffer distance, so it was absolutely safe outside 8 yards. But because Xu Xiang's low level, it was extremely dangerous if he was in the buffer zone.

<<Dispute>> wasn't that when the monster saw you then it will have hatred, only on special circumstances or dealing some damage to it then it will gain hatred. Otherwise, it won't motivate the monster. And this was the test to the player's skill, just like if a million soldiers walked in the jungle, a pair of leaves didn't even touch their body, this was the current state!

As a thief in his previous life, Xu Xiang often needed to calculate the hatred distance. A thief can reach many places that other professions can't reach, they never get higher profits, and the main income was the treasure chest. So about opening the chest, no one was better than a thief. But now, since he has no stealth, the range of hatred was much bigger.

Moreover, the wolves beside the chest had the same hatred that was far-reaching, if one accidentally attracted a wolf, it will be turned into a mass brawl.

Xu Xiang observed for 5 minutes staying in his previous place, calculated the hatred distance and made a final judgment of a safe route. This route is the safest because there were several areas out of the range of the buffer zone, but even with that, one can only pray to succeed.

Xu Xiang had nothing important, so he will not be distressed even if he died. He will be depressed if the experience lost but it was not a big deal compared to getting this skill. This skill will make huge effect to Xu Xiang in the future.

Xu Xiang began to walk towards the chest along his established route. When he walked 20 yards, he stopped in the same place, because at this time, there were three wolves' hatred distance overlapping and were still in the vicinity of Xu Xiang. One wolf was 9 yards in front, one was 8 yards on the right and one was 7 yards on the left rear. After 3 seconds, Xu Xiang had not been found, he slightly relieved and continued to move forward.

After a while, Xu Xiang got a little bit closer to the chest. On his way to the chest, he was almost found several times, but he had safely passed through, this can be described as a near miss.

After Xu Xiang had experienced fear for 3 minutes, he finally walked in front of the chest. His back had been soaked in sweat, it will be more difficult next time if he died this time, because it will disrupt the route of the wolf. And Xu Xiang also will have lost some experience, however, he finally arrived safely.

He had no time to think much, Xu Xiang began to open the treasure chest. Opening the chest needed five seconds, and the time he had to stay safe was also 5 seconds, which was just after opening. Xu Xiang had almost no time, he must run away immediately. The theory was feasible, but the actual difficulty was very big.

The system: the chest was opening, completed 20%, 40%, 60.....

Xu Xiang opened the chest, taking along something with his hand, it was a skill book. He had no time to see clearly, he quickly put the book into his backpack.

Chapter 7 The first time to fail!

At this time Xu Xiang heard a howl, he was discovered! Xu Xiang ran away immediately, but his moving speed can't be compared with the blue eyed wolf. A hit from the wolf, Xu Xiang lost 65 points of HP. High level monsters also have a level effect when they attack the players. The wolf attacked again, Xu Xiang slightly leaned to one side of his body, but the wolf claws grazed him and his HP was left with a single digit.

Took out a bottle of primary instantaneous recovery agents and drunk it, this time Xu Xiang was still desperately running. The cool down of the potion was 30 seconds, if his HP kept dropping, there was no way to supply. The wolf attacked again, he had almost reached the forest but suddenly there was a huge wolf running next to him, it was the king of wolf!

"Damn it, failed after all." Xu Xiang who was standing in the resurrection point of the village of newcomer in soul form hurriedly looked at his backpack, if the skill book dropped, he would suffer serious losses.

But fortunately, the skill book was still there. At this time, Xu Xiang laughed: "it seems that the brother Chun blesses me!"

Skill book: Enhanced Stealth

Skill description: An enhanced version of the thief skills stealth, have a faster moving speed and stronger stealth ability.

Weapon requirements: no

Skill attribute : make themselves become invisible, movement speed +10%, stealth effect increased by 20%, lasts for 1 minute, no cool down, can't be used in battle, user becomes visible when he takes damage or take the initiative to attack.

User limit: thieves, no racial requirements.

That was it. Although Xu Xiang had died once, but what he gained was more than loss. As we all know, stealth was a thief's trademark. The thieves can reach many places that other professions can't reach, what they rely on was stealth. Stealth was the basic skills of thieves, and also the soul skill!

With this skill book, Xu Xiang was more confident to carry out his plan. But now Xu Xiang was in a soul form, he was unable to learn skills, he have to run to his corpse in the zone of the blue eyed wolf.

At this time, the players in the village of newcomer can see that there was a new thief in the cemetery of the village of newcomer, whose cloth gown had burst out but he still was in a silly smile. "Be careful not to be infected by a fool." This was the advice for the novice from the players around, they thought this thief like a silly man must be hanged back by the monster like slime. But they didn't know they will worship this silly man after a while.

Xu Xiang arrived at the zone of blue eyes wolf, he found himself was in a good position. The closest wolf was 7 yards from Xu Xiang and the forest was 10 yards away. So, if he got into the forest, the blue eyed wolf would not run after him, and he will not found because the distance is 7 yards. However, the king of wolf returned its original position, and on the road, Xu Xiang opened the system, he saw that.

“Ding~ the king of the blue eyes wolf have caused 289 point damage to you by using roar, you are dead.”

After he revived, Xu Xiang immediately used the skill book which turned into white light and used the skill immediately. Under the state of stealth, the hatred distance of the blue eyed wolf was 3 yards, and 3 to 5 yards was a buffer, and the skill of Xu Xiang was enhanced stealth, so it was estimated to be less than that.

Xu Xiang quickly ran back to the village of newcomer, and immediately went offline!

Taking off the game helmet, Xu Xiang found himself unexpectedly sweating on his whole body. “It seems that the psychological quality should be tempered again.” Xu Xiang smiled. However, it’s no wonder, some things even if a person had a lot of experience with, the person will still be nervous when he was personally on the scene. Moreover, tension was not necessarily a bad thing, maybe it was able to arouse his potential.

Taking off his clothes and walked into the bathroom to take a bath happily, the harvest of Xu Xiang from the game today was very good. His level was temporarily in the lead from all of the players, and he also got a very important skill, it may be said this was a good start and his future will be excellent.

Xu Xiang thought of Wang Xue at this time. He met Wang Xue while he was level 5 in his previous life. At that time, they just joined a team together to go dungeons. Wang Xue was a young beauty, Xu Xiang naturally had identified with Wang Xue since that time. There were a lot of strange things in the world, falling in love at first sight was one of it.

"This time, I won't let you go from my side, and Xinming Bai, you wait for me!" Xu Xiang clenched his fist, it was the commitment to himself. Xu Xiang would not forget to remind himself every day, this was the original power.

After taking a bath, Xu Xiang took 2 packets of instant noodles and 3 pieces of ham, then he boiled them in a pan. That was really if a person was in a good mood, then he will feel that even drinking the plain water was sweeter than honey. So Xu Xiang ate the whole pan of noodles without a drop left, and he burped.

Now it had already been 11:50pm, Xu Xiang had been in the game more than 3 hours. The online time after 12 o'clock had been regarded as tomorrow. Although the brain was in a state of mild sleep when he was in the game, but compared to this, Xu Xiang prefer to get a good sleep.

He set the alarm clock of his phone to 7:30 tomorrow morning, so that he can get up, then wash his face and brush his teeth, and eat breakfast. Thus he will be online at about 8 o'clock, it was just 10 hours until 8 o'clock in the evening. Then he was to exercise. The three years of mercenary of Xu Xiang told him that the body was the most important capital and Xu Xiang had gotten a set of special training methods from his mercenary career.

Going to bed, he didn't know whether because he was too happy or too tired, Xu Xiang fell asleep in a short with thoughts of Wang Xue.

"Wang Xue!" Xu Xiang surprised to look ahead, that was Wang Xue, the girl who let him dreaming. She was still so beautiful, the black long hair hang down to the waist, smart eyes was looking at Xu Xiang with smile. She was waving her hands towards Xu Xiang "Xu Xiang, come on quickly."

Although it was said quickly, and although Xu Xiang tried his best to run toward the direction of Wang Xue, but the distance between them was farther and farther, until Xu Xiang can no longer see Wang Xue. At this time, there came a sound, "please don't be infatuated with elder brother, I am only a legend." (The song "the elder brother is only a legend"

"Wang Xue!" Xu Xiang screamed out and sat up in bed, looking at the ringing alarm clock, "just a dream!" Xu Xiang signed. But it also was verified that saying: what you think about in the day, you will dream of it at night.

"Wang Xue, although now I don't know when I'll meet you, but even in the vast sea of humanity, I can recognize you in one sight." However, Xu Xiang just forgot that there was a saying: I look for her once and again in the crowd, but in vain. Suddenly looking back, that person just was in the dim light.

Washing his face and brushing his teeth, then having his breakfast, Xu

Xiang went downstairs, came to the stalls that he had been usually ate.

“Boss, a bowl soybean milk and two deep-fried dough sticks.” Even in 2015, many people still can’t get rid of the Chinese classic breakfast, Xu Xiang was one of them.

The possibility of choking to death because of eating fried dough sticks didn’t happen, Xu Xiang ate his breakfast contentedly, then returned home, wore a helmet, and went online!

He was still in the village of newcomer. They will be in the village of newcomer until they can change their profession at level 10, and then they will arrive at the city only after they were level 10. Xu Xiang looked at his current experience, 0% at level 2. It was cleared directly because of his death yesterday, fortunately, he went after he levelled up.

Xu Xiang believed that there were many players that reached level 1 or some may even reach level 2, he was not alone. Xu Xiang was very clear, but it was very simple for Xu Xiang if he really wanted to level up, he had all kinds of leveling methods in his head. If he commit fully on leveling, he can certainly exceed much more than the other players, but Xu Xiang understood, it was more important to have skills and equipment for a thief.

Chapter 8 A dog in the manger

Today, Xu Xiang planned to go increase his level to level 3 first then go look for equipment and skills, so that he was more confident. Xu Xiang walked out of the village of the newcomer, now the people in the monster zone of level 0 was less than before, but there is still a lot. Even getting to level 1, if ordinary players kill the level 1 monsters alone, the efficiency was not as good as the level 0 slime. After all, it took more time to kill the monsters of level 1, and HP needed to restore.

When Xu Xiang got deep into the monster zone today, there was no one that noticed him. There were people that have gotten into the level 1 monster zone or even level 2.

The destination of Xu Xiang was the level 4 goblin archer area.

Goblin Archer
Level: 4
Attack: 41
Defense: 9
HP: 180

Aside from the HP, there isn't a single attribute that made it deserve to be level 4. It was just a little stronger than the level 3 goblin, but it has a ranged attack. Due to the timid character of goblin's race, they can make all goblins within 5 yards to attack the attacker after they were attacked. And there were in general about 2 goblins within 5 yards, which was to say, if he was just by himself, he needed to face three goblin archers at the same time.

Xu Xiang came to the monster location from his memory. This was a mountain wall, but it had a place that concaved inward, forming a space which a person can stand. And now inside the space, there was a goblin archer standing there. The goblins were a very wretched race, even if they had a bow and arrow, they were still wretched.

In the previous life, this place was found by a casual warrior player. Because he was a casual player, he had no fixed group. When he passed through here, he found only a goblin archer, and don't just say within 5 yards, even within 20 yards there were no other goblin archers, so he killed the goblin archer. But after 5 seconds, there was unexpectedly another goblin archer. Such a fast spawn rate, it made him pay attention to it.

<> still had a setting, which was that if the archers attack when the enemy is within 3 yards, the attack damage will become 50 percent of the usual and can be interrupted.

Xu Xiang now was to take advantage of this fast spawn rate to quickly level up. The attack speed of the thief was relatively fast. It would be more obvious as the game progresses to the later stages. Xu Xiang was also preparing to capture the movements of the goblin archer, so that he can interrupt the attack. Even if he was occasionally shot with one or two arrows, the damage will not be so high with the 50 percent damage reduction.

Xu Xiang came to the front of the concave groove, he blocked all the retreat path of the goblin archer. He raised his dagger and directly embedded it in the face of the goblin archer, the goblin archer's head showed a floating damage of 3 points. The level of Xu Xiang was still too low, and also his equipment was still the newcomer equipment.

The goblin archer was decisively angered, it picked up the bow and arrow in its hand and shot toward Xu Xiang's face. Xu Xiang was shot on his face, which made him cough. He really only lose a little HP and his head showed a floating damage of 20 points.

"It is fairly acceptable." Xu Xiang didn't deliberately interrupt this arrow as he just wanted to see how much the damage was. The damage was not high, so Xu Xiang confidently continued to attack. 3 points, 2 points, and occasionally 4 points, and furthermore there was a 6 or 7 points crit. Due to the large gap between the level, there were only a few crit even with several dozens of stabs.

Xu Xiang hasn't been shot. This was just a monster of level 4. As a thief of level 65 in his previous life, although he no longer had his attributes, his eyesight was still the same. If he was shot then he can really be ashamed to death, and three years of experience in a mercenary also let him be at ease.

The goblin archer fell down with a cry, and it dropped a leggings.

"Ding ~ congratulations to you killing the goblin archer, gain 250 points, increased experience by 20 percent for skipping 2 levels to kill the monster, gain 300 experience" It was fairly good, 300 experiences of a monster, he needed to kill more than 600 monsters to level up. And each monster needed nearly 40 seconds, so he can level up after a little more than six hours. Then he looked at the equipment

Goblin Leggings

User limit: thieves, archers, not limited to race.

White equipment, but it was still better than none. Xu Xiang was very happy and kindly accepted it. He wore the leggings, then his legs were finally no longer chilly. The clothes of the newcomer were of poor quality and didn't keep the user warm. The defense was also increased to 7 when he wore the leggings.

It was really like the words from the forum in his previous life, the respawn rate of the goblin archer in the concave groove was within 5 seconds. The warrior in the previous life found out soon after he began to kill the goblin archer. Because there had been a lot of people in the monster zone at that time, and someone saw the warrior was trying his efforts to attack again in the mountain wall, naturally he was found.

But now Xu Xiang did not have to worry about this, now no one will be here, Xu Xiang can grind the monster safely.

Just like that, Xu Xiang was waved his dagger for 40 seconds, then taking a rest for 5 seconds, then another 40 seconds, he kept doing it like that as a cycle, until the system voice sounded again. Thanks to the three years life as a mercenary, Xu Xiang's disposition had been considered tough, otherwise how many people can tolerate such a boring practice to level up.

"Ding ~ congratulations that you killed the goblin archer, gain experience of 251points, increased experience by 20 percent for skipping 2 grades to kill the monster, gain 300 experience. Congratulations, your level has increased to level 3, all attributes increased by 1, gained 10 free attribute points."

Again he added 3 points of attribute points to the strength and added 7 points to agility, at this time Xu Xiang had more than 2 pieces of equipment.

Maybe because the monster itself needs to wear leather, the equipment it dropped were leather. Now the attack power of Xu Xiang was 23 points, and the defense was 15 points. "It's a pity that it didn't drop any weapon." But Xu Xiang let go of his thought soon, "maybe when it drop a weapon it will just be a bow. That is really depressing."

At this time, the goblin archer refreshed again, it was still in that pit. Xu Xiang now called that a pit and the goblin archers were the dogs in the manger. So Xu Xiang killed them with the purpose of justice, which was the adjustment of the boring life of levelling up. Now he will kill this one to practice. He still stuck the goblin archer's face with a dagger.

14 points damage, which was pretty good, but he still had no weapon!

He killed this monster by sticking several time with the dagger, just as Xu Xiang was about to leave, he found that this monster dropped another item again.

Goblin Shortbow
